Greetings!

Good morning! I hope you had a restful weekend, and wish you a great week ahead! There is a school board meeting this week and the links are below in the calendar.

Tentative Agreement Election Results

The results of the vote were shared last week. 71.9% of voters voted in favor of the TA. We had an unprecedented amount of members participate (757!) and we truly appreciate your participation in the process. The next step is for the CVUSD School Board to vote on the TA, which will take place at this week's meeting.

Many of you have already reached out to ask about receiving the raise or the retro pay. We don't have answers to that yet since the ratification process isn't yet complete. As soon as we have that information, we will certainly share it with everyone.
